

RE: Press Release

June 4th, 2018

Immediate Information contact: Frank Sroka, frank@owlware.com

Connect 4 Life Charity, The DisAbility Channel & OWLware have announced that they will be joining resources and coming together as leaders in the disability community of the GTA. This partnership will begin on June 1st 2018 when Connect 4 Life will bring their operation to our offices at beautiful Artscape Wychwood Barns located in midtown Toronto.

This merging of projects will continue to enrich our disability community and forward our joint missions to cultivate creative opportunities and accelerate skills for individuals with disabilities. The DisAbility Channel will continue to create excellent online video content showcasing abilities, while OWLware will provide skills upgrade programming along with Connect 4 Life who will deliver exceptional industry standard training in the areas of radio broadcasting/podcasting and life skills.

The DisAbility Channel is a creator of online content showcasing abilities. The DisAbility Channel provides work placement mentorship opportunities for individuals interested in learning skills in the area of video production and post-production.

Connect4Life Charity is a non-profit organization whose mission is to enhance the potential of individuals with disabilities by strengthening their independence and contributions to society; and, to promote positive social change by transforming public perception.

OWLWare is a service provider for ODSP (Ontario Disability Support Program) providing innovative return to work programs for individuals looking to gain knowledge in the area of digital media.